

ALL STUDENTS CAN SUCCEED

HOW TO FIND HELP FOR YOUR CHLD

Santa Cruz City Schools endeavors to create a learning environment that challenges and enables students to achieve their highest potentials. We provide learning and social-emotional supports to ensure out students have the access and opportunity to succeed.

We do not tolerate bullying, harassment, sexual harassment or discrimination of any kind.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Contact your child's teacher. All teachers can be reached by email or phone. If you need assistance, contact the school secretary. The teacher is the first step in getting help for your child's academic needs.

If after speaking with your child's teacher, you need further support, contact your school counselor by accessing the staff page on the school website He or she can assist you with

If after speaking with your school counselor you still have concerns, contact the Principal.

SOCIAL, EMOTIONAL, BEHAVIORAL SUPPORT

The classroom teacher can offer you assistance with meeting the social, emotional and behavior needs of your student. In addition, all of our schools have professional school counselors who can provide direct assistance as well as referral to community resources. We have two District Social workers who support our middle and high school students as well as interns.
